General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	No amendment history on record	21 September 2026, 04:50 UTC	dd09866128f40fae2fedccee - 6693bd146ab020720b571276 - d10c5e861af2d86b

The Secretary may enter into an agreement with the debtor for payment of the debt in installments if the Secretary determines that the agreement will facilitate collection of the debt. The Secretary may modify or terminate the agreement if one or more of the following findings is made:

Information provided by the debtor in support of the agreement was inaccurate or incomplete.

Collection of debt to which the agreement applies is in jeopardy.

The debtor's financial condition has changed.

The debtor has failed to pay an installment when due.

The debtor has failed to provide information requested by the Secretary.

The Secretary must give a debtor who has entered into an installment agreement at least 30 days' written notice before modifying or terminating the agreement on the grounds that the debtor's financial condition has changed unless the debtor failed to disclose or concealed assets or income when the agreement was made or the debtor has acquired assets since the agreement was made that can satisfy all or part of the debt. A notice must specify the basis for the Secretary's finding of a change in the debtor's financial condition. (2025-83, s. 11(a).)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
