

CHAPTER 106
ARTICLE 53 - GRAIN DEALERS

N.C.G.S. § 106-610.

Grounds for refusal, suspension or revocation of license.

SOURCE	LAST AMENDMENT IN THIS TEXT	RETRIEVED	SOURCE FINGERPRINT
General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	S.L. 2013-102, s. 2 — third act in the lineage	21 September 2026, 05:39 UTC	5e27963c66a8e86040089c95 - 20fa9a473dca284301b6cbdd - 564c7c27d3779fb2

The Commissioner may refuse to grant or renew any license, may suspend or may revoke any license upon a showing by substantial and competent evidence of any of the following:

The dealer has suffered a final money judgment to be entered against him and such judgment remains unsatisfied.

The dealer has failed to promptly and properly account and pay for grain.

The dealer has failed to keep and maintain business records of his grain transactions as required by this Article.

The dealer has engaged in fraudulent or deceptive practices in the transaction of his business as a dealer.

The dealer has failed to collect from a producer and remit to the Commissioner of Agriculture such assessments as have been approved by the producers and are required to be collected under the provisions of Article 50 of Chapter 106 of the General Statutes.

The dealer or applicant has been convicted, pled guilty or nolo contendere within three years in any state or federal court of a crime involving moral turpitude.

The dealer has failed either to file the required bond or to keep such bond in force.

The applicant has acted or held himself or herself out as a grain dealer without first having obtained a license under the provisions of this Article.

The dealer has hired a person who has been convicted of a crime involving fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation in any capacity involving the buying or selling of grain, or the handling of payments for grain.

The dealer or applicant has violated any provision of this Article or rules adopted pursuant to this Article.

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
