The State Board shall not issue provisional licenses for principals. All principals and supervisors employed in the public schools of the State or in schools receiving public funds are required either to hold or be qualified to hold a license issued by the State Board of Education. It is unlawful for a local board of education to employ or keep in service a principal or supervisor who neither holds nor is qualified to hold a license. However, a local board of education may select a retired principal or retired assistant principal to serve as an interim principal for the remainder of any school year, regardless of licensure status.

§ 115C-284(f) The allotment of classified principals is one principal for each duly constituted school with seven or more state-allotted teachers.

§ 115C-284(g) Local boards of education have authority to employ supervisors in addition to those that may be furnished by the State when, in the discretion of the board of education, the schools of the local school administrative unit can thereby be more efficiently and more economically operated and when funds for them are provided in the current expense fund budget. The duties of these supervisors shall be assigned by the superintendent with the approval of the board of education.

§ 115C-284(h) Repealed by Session Laws 2025-25, s. 13(a), effective June 26, 2025.

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
