

CHAPTER 125
ARTICLE 1A - STATE DEPOSITORY LIBRARY SYSTEM

N.C.G.S. § 125-11.7.

State Library designated the official depository for all State publications.

SOURCE General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	LAST AMENDMENT IN THIS TEXT c. 771, s. 2 — first act in the lineage	RETRIEVED 21 September 2026, 05:52 UTC	SOURCE FINGERPRINT 1bdb7695450c97af2c9bc1a8 - 63a533ade18594edd378af76 - 1e8a8923ff974d6a
--	--	---	--

The State Library shall be the official, complete, and permanent depository for all State publications, and shall receive five copies of all State publications in addition to the copies required for the depository system: Provided, however, the State Library shall receive only five copies of any State publication offered for sale by a State agency at a price at least high enough to recover production costs: Provided, further, the State Library, notwithstanding the definition of "State publication" contained in this Article, shall have authority to exclude from required deposit in the State Library any items or materials which it finds are not appropriate for deposit.

N.C. Gen. Stat. § 125-11.7 (1987).

Pinpoint keys are set in the left margin of the text rather than line numbers: subsection designators are stable across editions and paper sizes, line numbers are not.

COLOPHON

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
