§ 14-81(a)

CLASS H FELONY

Larceny of horses, mules, swine, or cattle is a Class H felony.

§ 14-81(a1)

CLASS I FELONY

Larceny of a dog is a Class I felony.

§ 14-81(b)

In sentencing a person convicted of violating this section, the judge shall, as a minimum punishment, place a person on probation subject to the following conditions:

- (1) A person must make restitution for the damage or loss caused by the larceny of the livestock or dogs, and
- (2) A person must pay a fine of not less than the amount of the damages or loss caused by the larceny of the livestock or dogs.

§ 14-81(c)

No provision in this section shall limit the authority of the judge to sentence the person convicted of violating this section to an active sentence. Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
