General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	No amendment history on record	21 September 2026, 03:44 UTC	392df4efcdc2bd4da135bdba - b94ef183e9930836ae761e84 - c1912d32878cc3bc

The State CIO shall oversee the manner and means by which information technology business and disaster recovery plans for the State agencies are created, reviewed, and updated. Each State agency shall establish a disaster recovery planning team to work with the Department, or other resources designated by the State CIO, to develop the disaster recovery plan and to administer implementation of the plan. In developing the plan, all of the following shall be completed:

Consider the organizational, managerial, and technical environments in which the disaster recovery plan must be implemented.

Assess the types and likely parameters of disasters most likely to occur and the resultant impacts on the agency's ability to perform its mission.

List protective measures to be implemented in anticipation of a natural or man-made disaster.

Determine whether the plan is adequate to address information technology security incidents.

Each State agency shall submit its disaster recovery plan to the State CIO on an annual basis and as otherwise requested by the State CIO. (2015-241, s. 7A.2(b).)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
