- § 143B-181.3(a) The North Carolina General Assembly finds the following:
- (1) Older adults should be able to live as independently as possible, and to live free from abuse, neglect, and exploitation.
 - (2) Older adults should have opportunities to be involved in their communities in ways they desire.
 - (3) Preventive and primary health care are necessary to assure optimal health and to enable active social and civic engagement by older adults.
 - (4) Sufficient opportunities for training in gerontology and geriatrics should be developed and readily available for individuals serving older adults.
 - (5) Older adults should have access to a broad range of services, supports, and opportunities, and they should have transportation options available to allow access to these services and to meet their daily needs and interests.
 - (6) Services for older adults should be person-centered and coordinated so that an individual's needs can be met efficiently, effectively, and in the least restrictive environment.
 - (7) Information should be readily available in each county on all programs and services for older adults.
 - (8) Older adults should have adequate opportunities for employment.

- (9) Each county should have available a variety of housing options, including retirement housing, accessible affordable rental housing, and opportunities for residential home modifications, in order to allow older adults to remain in their communities.
- (10) Older adults and their caregivers should have input in the planning and evaluation of programs and services for older adults, and they should have opportunities to advocate for these programs and services.
- (11) The State should assist older adults who desire to remain as independent as possible and should encourage and support families in caring for their older members.

§ 143B-181.3(b)

It is the policy of the State to effectively utilize its resources to support and enhance the quality of life for older adults in North Carolina.

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
