General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	c. 418, s. 1 — first act in the lineage	21 September 2026, 05:52 UTC	c658c07a322e7a41180a672d - d770e226d8bc3b55bafdd64f - 4c0f711d900f8021

At the first meeting at which a permanent rule is before the Commission for review, the Commission must take one of the following actions:

Approve the rule, if the Commission determines that the rule meets the standards for review.

Object to the rule, if the Commission determines that the rule does not meet the standards for review.

Extend the period for reviewing the rule, if the Commission determines it needs additional information on the rule to be able to decide whether the rule meets the standards for review.

In reviewing a new rule or an amendment to an existing rule, the Commission may request an agency to make technical changes to the rule and may condition its approval of the rule on the agency's making the requested technical changes.

Pinpoint keys are set in the left margin of the text rather than line numbers: subsection designators are stable across editions and paper sizes, line numbers are not.

COLOPHON

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
