All irregularities caused by failure of any officer whose duty it was to provide for the election of a member or members of board of drainage commissioners of any drainage district, or the failure of any candidate to make a deposit as may be required by law, shall not invalidate such election where the following facts appear affirmatively:

- That said election was held at the time and place prescribed by law.
  - That a ballot box was provided for the ballots cast for drainage commissioner.
  - That the ballots were canvassed and the results declared by the judge of the general election.
  - That the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes was declared elected.
  - That no candidate for election as a member of board of drainage commissioners made any deposit as prescribed by law.
  - That the candidate receiving the majority votes at said election has already qualified and is acting as such drainage commissioner.
- This section shall not apply to any election contested before March 9, 1921.

Pinpoint keys are set in the left margin of the text rather than line numbers: subsection designators are stable across editions and paper sizes, line numbers are not.

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
