General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	c. 1286, s. 1 — first act in the lineage	21 September 2026, 05:52 UTC	571da721d96878c6775a38a8 - 561bcd1a6316fa836a49302c - 220eff03082e17e6

§ 15A-975(a)

In superior court, the defendant may move to suppress evidence only prior to trial unless the defendant did not have reasonable opportunity to make the motion before trial or unless a motion to suppress is allowed during trial under subsection (b) or (c).

§ 15A-975(b)

A motion to suppress may be made for the first time during trial when the State has failed to notify the defendant's counsel or, if he has none, the defendant, sooner than 20 working days before trial, of its intention to use the evidence, and the evidence is:

- (1) Evidence of a statement made by a defendant;
- (2) Evidence obtained by virtue of a search without a search warrant; or
- (3) Evidence obtained as a result of search with a search warrant when the defendant was not present at the time of the execution of the search warrant.

§ 15A-975(c)

If, after a pretrial determination and denial of the motion, the judge is satisfied, upon a showing by the defendant, that additional pertinent facts have been discovered by the defendant which he could not have discovered with reasonable diligence before the determination of the motion, he may permit the defendant to renew the motion before the trial or, if not possible because of the time of discovery of alleged new facts, during trial.

When a misdemeanor is appealed by the defendant for trial de novo in superior court, the State need not give the notice required by this section.

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
