

CHAPTER 17C
ARTICLE 1 - GENERAL

N.C.G.S. § 17C-1.

Findings and policy.

General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	c. 763, s. 1 — second act in the lineage	21 September 2026, 03:32 UTC	a1b5ec9d2b6850365500aff3 - 156c8d4eed9b2057c67a208d - 5cfee628ea6cb350

The General Assembly finds that the administration of criminal justice is of statewide concern, and that proper administration is important to the health, safety and welfare of the people of the State and is of such nature as to require education and training of a professional nature. It is in the public interest that such education and training be made available to persons who seek to become criminal justice officers, persons who are serving as such officers in a temporary or probationary capacity, and persons already in regular service.

FULL SECTION

N.C. Gen. Stat. § 17C-1 (1979).

Pinpoint keys are set in the left margin of the text rather than line numbers: subsection designators are stable across editions and paper sizes, line numbers are not.

COLOPHON

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
