§ 32-54(a) If the terms of the trust do not specify the trustee's compensation, the trustee is entitled to receive from the assets of the trust compensation that is reasonable under the circumstances.

§ 32-54(b) All of the following factors shall be considered in determining reasonableness of compensation:

- (1) The degree of difficulty and novelty of the tasks required of the trustee.
- (2) The responsibilities and risks involved.
- (3) The amount and character of the trust assets.
- (4) The skill, experience, expertise, and facilities of the trustee.
- (5) The quality of the trustee's performance.
- (6) Comparable charges for similar services.
- (7) Time devoted to administering the trust.
- (8) Time constraints imposed upon the trustee in administering the trust.
- (9) Nature and costs of services delegated to others by the trustee.
- (10) Where more than one trustee is serving, the reasonableness of the total fees paid to all trustees.
- (11) Other factors which the trustee or the clerk of superior court deems to be relevant. (2004-139, s. 2.)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
