General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	c. 486, s. 1 — first act in the lineage	21 September 2026, 04:47 UTC	d5aed106cdb5a3d05d9efd9d - 033b4afef8c0b1cee2d106f5 - 1da5ce722c8efa07

- § 33B-19(a)

This act applies to a transfer or declaration creating a custodial trust that refers to this act if, at the time of the transfer or declaration, the transferor, beneficiary, or custodial trustee is a resident of or has its principal place of business in this State or the custodial trust property is located in this State. The custodial trust remains subject to this act despite a later change in residence or principal place of business of the transferor, beneficiary, or custodial trustee, or removal of the custodial trust property from this State.
- § 33B-19(b)

A transfer made pursuant to an act of another state substantially similar to this act is governed by the law of that state and may be enforced in this State.

PINPOINT

N.C. Gen. Stat. § 33B-19(a) (1995).

Pinpoint keys are set in the left margin of the text rather than line numbers: subsection designators are stable across editions and paper sizes, line numbers are not.

COLOPHON

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
