General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	c. 486, s. 1 — first act in the lineage	21 September 2026, 01:15 UTC	abc3fffb8ca4d989b1b29904 - 56ccc9dc6f66658a8c602476 - f4982e5b92d14b01

§ 33B-3(a) A person may create a custodial trust to begin in the future by designating the transferee in substance "as custodial trustee for _____ (name of beneficiary) under the North Carolina Uniform Custodial Trust Act". A designation under this section may be made in:

- (1) A will;
- (2) A trust;
- (3) An insurance policy;
- (4) A deed;
- (5) A payable-on-death account;
- (6) An instrument exercising a power of appointment, provided that the donor of the power has not expressly prohibited the exercise of the power in favor of a custodial trustee, and provided further that the beneficiary of the custodial trust is a permissible object of the power, although the custodial trustee need not be a permissible object of the power; or
- (7) A writing designating a beneficiary of contractual rights, including but not limited to rights under a pension or profit sharing plan, which is registered with or delivered to the fiduciary, payor, issuer, or obligor of the contractual right.

§ 33B-3(b) Persons may be designated as substitute or successor custodial trustees to whom the property must be paid or transferred in the order named if the preceding designated custodial trustee is unable or unwilling to serve.

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
