General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	No amendment history on record	21 September 2026, 03:28 UTC	83581628f36d6847c5dd6ab3 - c06e8895730267e99475d54c - c7aacb1a91805dcb

§ 36F-6(a) When disclosing digital assets of a user under this Chapter, the custodian may, at its sole discretion, do any of the following:

- (1) Grant a fiduciary or designated recipient full access to the user's account.
- (2) Grant a fiduciary or designated recipient partial access to the user's account sufficient to perform the tasks with which the fiduciary or designated recipient is charged.
- (3) Provide a fiduciary or designated recipient a copy in a record of any digital asset that, on the date the custodian received the request for disclosure, the user could have accessed if the user were alive and had full capacity and access to the account.

§ 36F-6(b) A custodian may assess a reasonable administrative charge for the cost of disclosing digital assets under this Chapter.

§ 36F-6(c) A custodian need not disclose under this Chapter a digital asset deleted by the user.

§ 36F-6(d) If a user directs or a fiduciary requests a custodian to disclose under this Chapter some, but not all, of the user's digital assets, the custodian need not disclose the assets if segregation of the assets would impose an undue burden on the custodian. If the custodian believes the direction or request imposes an undue burden, the custodian or fiduciary may seek an order from the court to disclose any of the following:

- (1) A subset limited by date of the user's digital assets.
- (2) All of the user's digital assets to the fiduciary or designated recipient.

- (3) None of the user's digital assets.
- (4) All of the user's digital assets to the court for review in camera. (2016-53, s. 1.)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
