

CHAPTER 36F

N.C.G.S. § 36F-8.

Disclosure of other digital assets of deceased user.

SOURCE	LAST AMENDMENT IN THIS TEXT	RETRIEVED	SOURCE FINGERPRINT
General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	No amendment history on record	21 September 2026, 02:03 UTC	09dcd3211231b63ded52b87d - 2bb8e2389cd18c5a0ff85ae8 - 40e31056e5f5c1e5

Unless the user prohibited disclosure of digital assets or the court directs otherwise, a custodian shall disclose to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased user a catalogue of electronic communications sent or received by the user and digital assets, other than the content of electronic communications, of the user, if the personal representative gives the custodian all of the following:

A written request for disclosure in physical or electronic form.

A certified copy of the death certificate of the user.

A certified copy of letters of administration or letters testamentary of the personal representative, a certified copy of a small estate affidavit filed in accordance with G.S. 28A-25-1(b), a certified copy of a summary administration order described in G.S. 28A-28-3, or a court order.

If requested by the custodian, any of the following:

a.A number, username, address, or other unique subscriber or account identifier assigned by the custodian to identify the user's account.

b.Evidence linking the account to the user.

c.An affidavit stating that disclosure of the user's digital assets is reasonably necessary for administration of the estate.

d.A finding by the court of any of the following:

1.That the user had a specific account with the custodian, identifiable by the information specified in sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

2.That disclosure of the user's digital assets is reasonably necessary for administration of the estate.-(2016-53, s. 1.)

COLOPHON

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
