General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	No amendment history on record	21 September 2026, 02:49 UTC	38d53ef99013434a8930ba57 - a6d3eb66c84e6aca7d51157e - 686efa27d7b93e93

To the extent a power of attorney expressly grants an agent authority over the content of electronic communications sent or received by the principal and unless directed otherwise by the principal or the court, a custodian shall disclose to the agent the content of an electronic communication if the agent gives the custodian all of the following:

A written request for disclosure in physical or electronic form.

An original or copy of the power of attorney expressly granting the agent authority over the content of electronic communications of the principal.

A certification by the agent, under penalty of perjury, that the power of attorney is in effect.

If requested by the custodian, any of the following:

a.A number, username, address, or other unique subscriber or account identifier assigned by the custodian to identify the principal's account.

b.Evidence linking the account to the principal. (2016-53, s. 1.)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
