- § 39-23.7(a)

In an action for relief against a transfer or obligation under this Article, a creditor, subject to the limitations in G.S. 39-23.8, may obtain:

(1)

Avoidance of the transfer or obligation to the extent necessary to satisfy the creditor's claim;

(2)

An attachment or other provisional remedy against the asset transferred or other property of the transferee if available under applicable law; and

(3)

Subject to applicable principles of equity and in accordance with applicable rules of civil procedure:

a.

An injunction against further disposition by the debtor or a transferee, or both, of the asset transferred or of other property;

b.

Appointment of a receiver to take charge of the asset transferred or of other property of the transferee; or c.

Any other relief the circumstances may require.
- § 39-23.7(b)

If a creditor has obtained a judgment on a claim against the debtor, the creditor, if the court so orders, may levy execution on the asset transferred or its proceeds. (1997-291, s. 2; 2015-23, s. 1.)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
