General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	S.L. 2024-29, s. 4(a) — third act in the lineage	21 September 2026, 04:13 UTC	e9bfdd3db9d88d533eff96d2 - 93024a0762b15a3180d3f89f - a98a2f6684744109

- § 45-21.4(a)

Every sale of real property shall be held in the county where the property is situated unless the property consists of a single tract situated in two or more counties.
- § 45-21.4(b)

A sale of a single tract of real property situated in two or more counties may be held in any one of the counties in which any part of the tract is situated. As used in this section, a "single tract" means any tract which has a continuous boundary, regardless of whether parts thereof may have been acquired at different times or from different persons, or whether it may have been subdivided into other units or lots, or whether it is sold as a whole or in parts.
- § 45-21.4(c)

When a mortgage or deed of trust with power of sale of real property designates the place of sale within the county, the sale shall be held at the place so designated.
- § 45-21.4(d)

When a mortgage or deed of trust with power of sale of real property confers upon the mortgagee or trustee the right to designate the place of sale, the sale shall be held at the place designated by the notice of sale, which place shall be either on the premises to be sold or as follows:

(1)

Property situated wholly within a single county shall be sold at the courthouse door of the county in which the land is situated or at another public location within the county where the land is situated as designated by the mortgagee or trustee.

- (2) A single tract of property situated in two or more counties may be sold at the courthouse door of any one of the counties in which some part of the real property is situated or at another public location within any one of the counties in which some part of the real property is situated as designated by the mortgagee or trustee.

When a mortgage or deed of trust with power of sale of real property does not designate, or confer upon the mortgagee or trustee the right to designate, the place of sale, or when it designates as the place of sale some county in which no part of the property is situated, such real property shall be sold as follows:

- (1) Property situated wholly within a single county shall be sold at the courthouse door of the county in which the land is situated or at another public location within the county where the land is situated as designated by the clerk of the superior court of the county where the land is situated.
- (2) A single tract of property situated in two or more counties may be sold at the courthouse door of any one of the counties in which some part of the real property is situated or [at] another public location within one of the counties in which some part of the real property is situated as designated by the clerk of the superior court of one of the counties in which some part of the real property is situated.

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
