§ 54D-11(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section, a bank shall not exercise a right of recoupment or set off against a special deposit.

§ 54D-11(b) An account agreement may authorize the bank to debit the special deposit in any of the following circumstances:

- (1) When the bank becomes obligated to pay a beneficiary, in an amount that does not exceed the amount necessary to discharge the obligation.
- (2) For a fee assessed by the bank that relates to an overdraft in the special deposit account.
- (3) For costs incurred by the bank that relate directly to the special deposit.
- (4) To reverse an earlier credit posted by the bank to the balance of the special deposit account, if the reversal occurs under an event or circumstance warranted under other law of this State governing mistake and restitution.

§ 54D-11(c) The bank holding a special deposit may exercise a right of recoupment or set off against an obligation to pay a beneficiary, even if the bank funds payment from the special deposit. (2025-25, s. 158.)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
