General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	No amendment history on record	21 September 2026, 05:37 UTC	33824416ef9b0b836052347f - 98d9ff8c49e96611c64d1f49 - 292466c9e2a696c3

§ 66-274(a) The Secretary shall not issue a certificate of authentication for a document if the Secretary has cause to believe that the certificate is desired for an unlawful or improper purpose. The Secretary may examine not only the document for which a certificate is requested, but also any documents to which the previous seals or other certifications may have been affixed by other authorities. The Secretary may request any additional information that may be necessary to establish that the requested certificate will serve the interests of justice and is not contrary to public policy, including a certified or notarized English translation of document text in a foreign language.

§ 66-274(b) The Secretary shall not issue a certificate of authentication for any one or more of the following:

- (1) A seal or signature that cannot be authenticated by either the Secretary or another official.
- (2) A seal or signature of a foreign official.
- (3) A facsimile, photostat, photographic, or other reproduction of a signature or seal.

§ 66-274(c) The Secretary may not include within the certificate of authentication any statement that is not within the Secretary's power or knowledge to authenticate. The Secretary may not certify that a document has been executed or certified in accordance with the law of any particular jurisdiction or that a document is a valid document in a particular jurisdiction. (1998-228, s. 14.)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
