

CHAPTER 66
ARTICLE 40 - UNIFORM ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS ACT

N.C.G.S. § 66-318.

Provision of information in writing;
presentation of records.

General Statutes of North Carolina, as published by the General Assembly	No amendment history on record	21 September 2026, 05:53 UTC	dba28c93ac95ae769ee6e722 - b5df33156b79919c8110f52b - 22935c1e4fe8c275

- § 66-318(a) If parties have agreed to conduct a transaction by electronic means and a law requires a person to provide, send, or deliver information in writing to another person, the requirement is satisfied if the information is provided, sent, or delivered, as the case may be, in an electronic record capable of retention by the recipient at the time of receipt. An electronic record is not capable of retention by the recipient if:
- (1) The sender or its information processing system inhibits the ability of the recipient to print or store the electronic record; or
 - (2) It is not capable of being accurately reproduced for later reference by all parties or persons who are entitled to retain the contract or other record.

- § 66-318(b) If a law other than this Article requires a record (i) to be posted or displayed in a certain manner, (ii) to be sent, communicated, or transmitted by a specified method, or (iii) to contain information that is formatted in a certain manner, the following rules apply:
- (1) The record must be posted or displayed in the manner specified in the other law.
 - (2) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d)(2) of this section, the record must be sent, communicated, or transmitted by the method specified in the other law.
 - (3) The record must contain the information formatted in the manner specified in the other law.

§ 66-318(c) If a sender inhibits the ability of a recipient to store or print an electronic record, the electronic record is not enforceable against the recipient.

§ 66-318(d) The requirements of this section may not be varied by agreement, but:

- (1) To the extent a law other than this act requires information to be provided, sent, or delivered in writing, but permits that requirement to be varied by agreement, the requirement under subsection (a) of this section that the information be in the form of an electronic record capable of retention may also be varied by agreement; and
- (2) A requirement under a law other than this Article to send, communicate, or transmit a record by regular United States mail may be varied by agreement to the extent permitted by the other law. (2000-152, s. 1; 2001-295, s. 3.)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
