- § 84-28.4(a)

To be considered by the North Carolina State Bar, a grievance must allege conduct that, if true, constitutes attorney misconduct by violation of this Chapter or under the Rules of Professional Conduct and be filed by any of the following:

(1) An attorney or judge pursuant to their obligation to report misconduct in accordance with the Rules of Professional Conduct.

(2) A judge, attorney, court staff member, juror, party, or client in the legal matter that is the subject of the grievance.

(3) A person who has a cognizable interest in or connection to the legal matter or facts alleged in the grievance, or that person's representative.
- § 84-28.4(b)

The North Carolina State Bar shall have the ability to open and investigate grievances upon its own initiative, if facts alleging attorney misconduct are discovered by the North Carolina State Bar. (2024-25, s. 1(d).)

Provenance

This document reproduces the text of one section of the General Statutes of North Carolina from a source file whose SHA-256 digest is printed on every page. The digest fixes the bytes this export was made from; if the State's file changes, the digest will not match.

The text of the section is unaltered. Subsection designators have been moved from the run of text into the margin. The amendment history and the table of authorities are derived from the section by mechanical extraction — they add no characterization of the law.

This is not the official text. The official text is published by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
